

Organic Curcuma Powder

100 % natural

Useful information: Curcuma, the yellow root, is known in fine cuisine as a versatile spice with an exotic, warm and spicy note. It is not only its fine flavouring that makes curcuma so popular, but also the secondary plant substance curcumin it contains. Curcuma stimulates the production of gastric acids and supports the functions of liver and gall bladder, which are beneficial to digestion after fatty foods.

Our 100% natural, strong yellow organic curcuma powder is made from certified organic curcuma roots. It quickly and easily gives your dishes an exotic, Far Eastern touch. Enjoy the powder with rice, meat, fish, noodles, pulses and in soups - there are no limits to your creativity!

- For seasoning exotic dishes
- Vegan, lactose-free

Ingredients: 100 % curcuma powder from controlled organic cultivation.
