

Regeneration Treatment for the Back of the Hand for soft and intensively cared hands

Dry, stressed hands need a special care. This rich Regeneration Treatment with valuable oils and regenerative nutrients like sesame oil and avocado oil, shea butter and blossom honey reduce dryness and the feeling of tension and donates new elasticity and smoothness to your skin. Panthenol, allantoin and vitamin E counteract regenerative signs of fading and thus support the soothing care effect. Even rough and stressed hands rapidly look smooth and well cared.

Application: Apply the Regeneration Treatment generously as needed and let absorb it several minutes. For highly stressed hands we recommend to apply it overnight. Cotton gloves help to let operate the Regeneration Treatment particularly intensive and to keep the bedding clean. Any remaining traces can either be massaged in or removed with a tissue.
