

Coconut Oil Capsules

Nutritional supplement

Useful information:

Coconut oil not only tastes nice, it is an extremely precious food as an excellent source of medium-chain fatty acids. The high content of lauric acid is especially striking. Our coconut oil is gained from purely mechanical pressing the fruit of ripe coconuts from controlled organic cultivation. This preserves the valuable ingredients particularly well. The dosage form as soft gelatine capsules provides a simple, convenient and also regular nutritional supplement with this premium natural product.

Each capsule contains 500 mg pure organic coconut oil.

Ingredients:

Organic Coconut Oil (74 %)*, Gelatine, Humectant Glycerin.
