

Sea Buckthorn Shower Gel

For a refreshing, mild foaming body care with valuable ingredients of the sea buckthorn. From the pulp of the sea buckthorn berries a bright orange-red oil is extracted, which is distinguished by its characteristic tart flavor and its high content of carotenoids and palmitic acid and palmitoleic acid. Combined with moisturizing betaine maintains Sanct Bernhard Seabuckthorn shower gel the skin while showering, retains its natural moisture and protects it from dehydration - leaves skin feeling fresh and supple.
