

Hear Fit-Capsules

Nutritional supplement

with B-vitamins, vitamin C and E, magnesium, zinc, selenium, flavon glycosides and ginkgolide terpenlactones

Useful information:

Healthy, functional nerve cells are of decisive importance for hearing ability. The highly-sensitive structures within the ear catch the countless noises and sounds borne to them from all directions through the air. But only once the auditory stimuli are picked up by the auditory sensory cells, forwarded on to the auditory nerve and transmitted to the responsible brain areas via the auditory pathways do we actually "hear". Our nerves, including those of our hearing system, are dependent for their functionality on a sufficient supply of specific nutrients. We recommend Hear Fit Capsules as a daily nutritional supplement. Vitamin B12, potassium, niacin and biotin support the normal function of the nervous system. Vitamin C, zinc and selenium play a role in protecting the cells against oxidative stress. Ginkgo supports the blood circulation in the area of the small blood vessels as they are found in the inner ear.
