

Organic Rosehip Powder

vegan

Useful information:

Rosehips, the bright red fruits of the wild or dog rose, are a delicious, substantial gift from nature. The sweet-sour pulp is popular with young and old and can be enjoyed raw. However, the finely hairy seeds or kernels enclosed in the fruit must first be removed with difficulty. Our 100 % pure rosehip powder offers you a delicious, convenient alternative. Whole rosehips with seeds from controlled organic cultivation are ground micro-fine. Organic Rosehip Powder is suitable, amongst other things, for adding to smoothies, shakes, mueslis or for mixing with juice. Vegetarian, vegan.

Ingredients: 100 % Rosehip Powder from controlled organic cultivation.
