

Wild Rose Oil

Skin and massage oil

Precious wild rose oil, macadamia nut oil and St. John's wort oil with a high gamma-linolenic acid (GLA) content provide the perfect care for dry, chapped skin. The skin absorbs the oil very well, and the oil protects it against a loss of moisture and dryness. Scented with natural essential oils, this exclusive skin and massage oil pampers not only the skin, but also the senses. Wild Rose Oil is a natural product. Variations in colour are natural and do not constitute a quality impairment.
