

Organic Rosehip Capsules

Nutritional supplement
Vegan

Useful information: Rosehips, the bright red fruits of the wild or dog rose, are a delicious, substantial gift from nature whose importance has been increasingly recognised in recent times. However, the seeds with their fine hairs or the kernels contained inside can sometimes make eating the fruit on its own very difficult. Organic rosehip capsules from Kräuterhaus Sanct Bernhard offer a practical alternative, because a daily dose of six capsules contains three grams of pure, micro-fine ground powder of whole rosehips from controlled organic cultivation. In this way, you can regularly, easily and conveniently benefit from the full spectrum of contents of the best rosehips!

Ingredients: Rosehip Powder* (84 %), Hydroxypropylmethylcellulose.

* from controlled organic cultivation.
